

MANY OR MUCH?

a) Look at the sentences. One word is missing. Fill in many or much to complete them. Use your worksheet "Mengenangaben mit much und many" for help. (Ein Wort fehlt in jedem Satz. Setzte many oder much ein, um den Satz zu vervollständigen.)

1. How _____ eggs do you want to buy? Two boxes, please.
2. Excuse me, do you have apples? Yes, but not _____ are left.
3. How _____ are the strawberries? Sorry, I don't have that _____ money.
4. I put too _____ drinks into the basket, now it's too heavy.
5. I don't need _____ cucumbers. I only need one.
6. Do you need a shopping bag? No, thank you. I don't have _____ groceries.
7. I don't eat _____ fruit, I like vegetables more.

Solutions:

1. How many eggs do you want to buy? Two boxes, please.
2. Excuse me, do you have apples? Yes, but not many are left.
3. How much are the strawberries? Sorry, I don't have that much money.
4. I put too many drinks into the basket, now it's too heavy.
5. I don't need many cucumbers. I only need one.
6. Do you need a shopping bag? No, thank you. I don't have many groceries.
7. I don't eat much fruit, I like vegetables more.